

3. The small circles on the magic sphere above are filled with 26 consecutive numbers. Ten of the numbers are missing. Their spots are marked by the nine red circles in front of the sphere, and the circle labeled with a question mark at the back of the sphere. Can you insert the missing numbers such that the eight numbers on each great circle add up to the same sum? Bonus question: How many different ways are there to do this?